Nicole Anderson, an expert on estate planning

Nicole serves on the board of Laguna Beach Community Foundation, an organization delivering charitable wealth management services to individuals, nonprofits, and corporations.

In this session, Nicole will discuss the importance of knowing what you have and how it is titled. Title determines if an asset will go through probate and who owns the asset after death, in addition as to what legal document you will need if someone else has to make decisions on your behalf.

In addition, Nicole will discuss the advantages and disadvantages of probate, types of wills and intestate succession.

It's Your Estate is offered throughout Orange County and you can find the weekly class schedule online
